Donna Schnepp, MHA, RHIA is the current President of the Illinois Health Information Management Association. She is Program Director of the Health Information Technology Programs at Moraine Valley Community College in Palos Hills, IL. She is responsible for the Associate Degree Program in Health Information Technology, Coding Specialist Certificate Program, Medical Billing Certificate Program and Medical Transcription Certificate Program. She was part of the team who developed and implemented the ONC HIT 6-Month Certificate Program at Moraine Valley Community College.

She has served the Health Information Management Profession on the local, state and national level. She was President of the Chicago Area Health Information Management Association from which she received the Distinguished Member Award. She has also served on the AHIMA Approval Committee for Coding and Medical Transcription Programs. Her passion is education and she has a student-centered philosophy at both the administrative and teaching levels.